DRIPPING SPRINGS STUDENT-ATHLETES ANNOUNCE COMMITMENTS

DRIPPING SPRINGS, Texas—Two Dripping Springs High School seniors signed national letters of intent on Nov. 12 to continue their athletic careers at the collegiate level. Jade Beerman will play volleyball at Northwestern State University (La.) and Alyssa Fowler will compete in softball at West Liberty University (W. Va.). Below is a summary of the accomplishments of both student-athletes.

Jade Beerman

Volleyball

Northwestern State University

While helping lead DSHS to the state tournament last year, Jade Beerman was named to the All-Centex Third Team and earned honorable mention on the Texas Sports Writers Association All-State Team. She also earned a spot on the All-District First Team in both 2011 and 2013, and received second-team honors as a sophomore. As a freshman she was named the District Newcomer of the Year. In addition, she earned academic all-district honors the past two years. For the past seven years, Jade has played volleyball for Austin Juniors top team, which won Bronze Medals at the USA Volleyball National Championship in both 2013 and 2014. The daughter of Robert and Jill Beerman, she twice was selected as the libero for the Lone Star Region High Performance Team.

Coach: Michael Kane

Alyssa (Aly) Fowler

Softball

West Liberty University

On track to be a four-year letterwinner, Aly Fowler has been the starting catcher for the Dripping Springs High School Lady Tigers since her freshman season. She was selected to the All-District First Team last year after earning second-team honors as a sophomore. As a freshman, Aly was the team's Defensive Player of the Year. Her career statistics include a .347 batting average, 16 RBI, 5 doubles and a triple. The daughter of Doug and Karen Fowler, Aly also has earned academic all-district honors every year.

Coach: Wade Womack after being coached by Keith Tuck her first two seasons at DSHS
