DSHS Dominates at District

The Dripping Springs High School Speech and Debate team competed Feb. 9 at the UIL District Cross Examination Debate Tournament. DSHS dominated the competition for the second year in a row.

Students who placed at the tournament include a second-place finish by Gillian Bynum and Katy Reeves and a third-place finish by Shelton Stewart and Ames O'Boyle. Both will advance to the UIL State CX Debate Tournament in March at the University of Texas at Austin.

In addition, Ryan Love and Christian Pundt were fifth.
