PTAs Honored

Three PTAs (Parent-Teacher Association) at Dripping Springs schools were honored recently by the Texas PTA.

The Rooster Springs Elementary PTA received several honors: the Early Bird Achievement Award, which signifies increase of membership by Sept. 30; the Honor Roll Award, the President's List Award, and designations for both fall and spring increase in membership.

The PTAs from Dripping Springs Middle School and Dripping Springs Elementary both were named to the President's List, and were honored for student membership, and membership increases in both the fall and the spring.

All five Dripping Springs ISD schools have active PTAs that support the campus, its staff and students in many ways.
