DSHS Choirs Honored

On Wednesday, May 4, four Dripping Springs High School choirs participated in the UIL Concert and Sightreading competition. All four choirs received First Division ratings in the concert portion of the event and two of the choirs -- Treble Choir and Varsity Women -- also received First Division ratings in the sightreading half of the contest thus earning Sweepstakes for both groups.

On Friday, May 6, the members of various DSHS Choirs joined together to participate in the Gulf Coast Showcase of Music in Brownsville and the group received Best in Class as well as "Overall Outstanding Choir."
