Fernea Honored by National Football Foundation

Tiger senior Ethan Fernea was honored on May 9 by the National Football Foundation with the Dripping Springs High School Scholar-Athlete Award. The award is given to one outstanding football player from each of 48 public and private high schools in Central Texas in a ceremony at the University of Texas.

Fernea, who played defensive back and wide receiver for Dripping Springs, was named to the All-District First Team as a senior. He also earned a spot on the All-Centex Third Team and the Academic All-District First Team. Fernea, who also is a member of the track and baseball teams for the Tigers, plans to continue his education and play football at UCLA.
