

DATE: September 21, 2015

LADY TIGERS RANKED NUMBER 1 IN STATE

The Dripping Springs High School varsity volleyball team, under the direction of Head Coach Michael Kane, are ranked first in the state 5A poll (Texas Girls Coaches Association) and 12th in the country (MaxPreps.com). The Lady Tigers are 34-2 this season.

In addition, two Lady Tiger volleyball players were ranked among the top 100 seniors in the United States by prepvolleyball.com. Middle blocker Morgyn Greer was ranked 33rd in the country and libero Autumn Rounsaville came in at 78th. Greer is committed to continue her playing career at the University of Florida and Rounsaville is headed to the University of Texas next fall.