

News from Dripping Springs ISD

www.dsisdtx.us

DATE: April 10, 2017

THREE QUALIFY FOR UIL ACADEMIC STATE MEET

Three Dripping Springs High School students placed among the top three finishers at the UIL Academic regional meet April 8 and earned the right to compete at the state meet later this month.

Katie Haberman was second in Feature Writing, Rachel Nix was second in Computer Applications, and Michael Martinets was third in Spelling. All will head to the University of Texas April 21-22 for the state competition.

Strong performances also were turned in by the Literary Criticism team that placed second in the region; members were Mariah Chappell, Hailey Hodsdon, Henri Brink, and Ashleigh McCoy. In addition, Jackson Laws was a quarterfinalist in Lincoln-Douglas Debate.