Theatre Students Are National Qualifiers

Several DSHS theatre students became national qualifiers based on their performances at the Texas State Thespian Festival held in Dallas Dec. 1, 2016. Every DSHS student who attended competed in either a National Individual Events category or the Texas Thespians Challenge.

Nathan Dahill and Logan Dundon were finalists and national qualifiers with a Superior rating in Duet Acting. Natalie L'Amoreaux was a national qualifier who earned a Superior rating in Monologue, and Brynn Bewer was a national qualifier who received a Superior rating in Scenic Design. Cameron Adkins, Connor Bailey, Abrienne Jones, Logan Dundon, Nathan Dahill and alternates Rob Thomas and Dylan Kunz were members of the fourth-round advancing team in Improvisation Challenge.
