DSHS One-Act Play Advances

The Dripping Springs High School 2017 One-Act Play, "The Marowitz Hamlet," has qualified for Area competition, which will be held April 1 at Taylor High School in San Antonio.

Outstanding performances at district and bi-district competition earned DSHS actors the right to advance to area.

At District 26-5A competition, Dripping Springs was one of three schools selected to move on to the bi-district competition. Individual awards were won by Nathan Dahill (All-Star Cast), Olivia Fletcher (Technical Award, stage manager), Natalie L'Amoreaux (Honorable Mention All-Star).

At the bi-district competition, DSHS again was chosen as one of three schools to advance. Natalie L'Amoreaux and Connor Bailey were named to the All-Star Cast and Natalie Schmidt earned a spot on the Technical Honor Crew.
