DSHS Students Place at District Academic UIL Meet

DSHS students won five individual and there team events at the UIL District 26-5A Academic Meet; all will advance to regional competition, Also qualifying for regional competition are four other students who placed second or third in their events. Two runner-up teams are alternates to the regional meet.

Placing first in individual events were: Hailey Hodsden in both Ready Writing and Literary Criticism, Rachel Nix in Computer Applications, and Michael Martinets in both Spelling and Math. Other individual regional qualifiers are Katie Haberman (Second, Feature Writing), Ryan Gahagan (third, Number Sense), Varun Varna (third, Computer Applications), and Ken Gossett (third, Spelling).

The Spelling, Math and Literary Criticism teams also were first and will head to regional competition. Second-place teams are "wildcard" alternate qualifiers to regionals; for DSHS, the Current Events, Accounting, and Social Studies teams were second.

The regional meet will be held April 8 at the University of San Antonio.
