DSISD Assistant Superintendent Honored

Elaine Cogburn, DSISD Assistant Superintendent for Business Services, was one of three statewide finalists for the Commitment to Excellence Award presented by the Texas Association of School Business Officials (TASBO).

The Commitment to Excellence Award is the highest individual honor presented annually by the organization. It is awarded to the member who "best distinguishes themselves within their profession, within their district, and within TASBO." Ms. Cogburn was honored at TASBO's recent conference.

Ms. Cogburn has been Dripping Springs ISD's Chief Financial Officer since August of 2013. She previously served as CFO at three other Texas school districts over an 11-year period. Ms. Cogburn is a Certified Public Accountant and a Registered Texas School Business Administrator.

The award was won by Lindy Finley of Jacksonville ISD; Deborah Ottmers of Fredericksburg ISD was the other finalist.
