Hi-Steppers Complete Successful Season

The Dripping Springs High School Hi-Steppers have completed their competitive season with multiple honors.

At the Vista Ridge Classic, senior soloist Lauren Mamrosh and the duet of Sage Handley and Natalie Green placed first in their events. Junior Jillian Bohuslav and freshman Rylee Oldham placed third at their grade levels.

DSHS was extremely successful at the Crowdpleasers Hill Country Classic in San Marcos Feb. 18. With an overall team GPA, the Hi-Steppers received the Academic Achievement Excellence Team Award.

The Hi-Steppers won the Team Super Sweepstakes Award thanks to scores of 90 or higher from every judge on every routine. DSHS also won Best in Class in the Team Lyrical and Novelty divisions and received the Choreography and Performance Quality Award in Team Novelty. Officers won Officer Super Sweepstakes for their ratings of 90 and higher and were awarded Best in Class in Officer Lyrical and Modern. Officers also won the Choreography/Tech Award in Lyrical and the Choreography Award in Jazz. DSHS was first runner-up for Grand Champion Officers. Lauren Mamrosh was the senior solo winner.

The Hi-Steppers will hold their annual spring show April 28 at 7:30 p.m. and April 29 at both 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. "Bright Lights on Broadway" will be performed at the DSHS auditorium.
