

News from Dripping Springs ISD

www.dsisdtx.us

DATE: November 3, 2016

DSHS Has State Debate Qualifier

At the UIL Regional Congressional Debate Contest Nov. 2, a Dripping Springs High School student qualified for the state tournament. Junior Dylan Farr placed second in the 5A Congressional Debate contest and will advance to the state tournament in January. This marks the fourth consecutive year that DSHS will be represented in the state tournament.

In addition, sophomore Max Bibeau placed fourth and is the first state alternate. He also was recognized as an Outstanding Presiding Officer at the regional tournament. Sophomore Mason Mohon finished fifth and is a second alternate.