Ten Students Are Commended

Dripping Springs High School Principal Joe Burns announced today that 10 students have been recognized as “Commended” in the 2017 National Merit Program. In addition, five were selected as National Merit Semifinalists, as announced earlier this month.

To be chosen as Commended Scholar, students must have placed among the top five percent of more than 1.5 million students nationally who took the PSAT/NMSQT. Approximately 34,000 Commended Scholars are being recognized nationwide.

Commended students from Dripping Springs High School are:

Brooke Adams
Emma Berthelsen
Mariah Chappell
Harrison Hill
Hailey Hodsden
Michael Martinets
Daniel Peel
Katy Reeves
Jose Teuttli
Austin Wolff

These students will be honored at the Oct. 24 DSISD Board of Trustees meeting.

Students selected as National Merit Semifinalists were: Cameron Adkins, Abigail Brack, Michael Geary, Rachel Nix and Marnie O’Boyle.
