

News from Dripping Springs ISD

www.dsisdtx.us

DATE: January 25, 2019

HIGH SCHOOL DECA STUDENTS QUALIFY FOR STATE

Dripping Springs High School students were successful at the regional DECA competition held at Bastrop High School Jan. 19. A school-record 27 students earned the right to advance to state competition from the approximately 1,300 Central Texas students who competed.

DECA prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs in marketing, finance, hospitality and management in high schools and colleges around the globe. The state event will be held Feb. 21-23 in Dallas.

DSHS state qualifiers are:

Aleena Ahmed, Business Law and Ethics Team Decision Making
Emily Bergeron, Hospitality Services Team Decision Making
Trevor Burk, Business Law and Ethics Team Decision Making
Keith Cox, Innovation Plan
Valari Graham, Retail Merchandising
Chase Grunden, Sports and Entertainment Marketing Series
Ethan Guida, Financial Services Team Decision Making
Annaletitia Hastings, Marketing Communications Series
Sydney Hetherington, Hospitality Services Team Decision Making
Matthew Hilton, Financial Services Team Decision Making
Katherine Ingram, Hospitality Services Team Decision Making
Megan Kelly, Buying and Merchandising Team Decision Making
Sean Kelly, Sports & Entertainment Team Decision Making
Sarah Khan, Integrated Marketing Campaign-Product
Zain Khan, Sports and Entertainment Marketing Series
Teagan Krewson, Entrepreneurship Series
Lily Claire Kroll, Buying and Merchandising Team Decision Making
Colin McCraw, Sports & Entertainment Team Decision Making
Jalen Miller, Integrated Marketing Campaign - Product

Colton Owens, Marketing Communications Series
Emily Pundt, Hospitality Services Team Decision Making
Lily Sethre-Brink, Marketing Communications Series
Owen Tuohy, Innovation Plan
Varun Verma, Business Finance Series
Vinay Verma, Principles of Hospitality and Tourism
Riley Wheaton, Sports and Entertainment Marketing Series
Madison Wright, Integrated Marketing Campaign-Product