

DATE: May 1, 2018

DSHS AG STUDENTS COMPETE IN FFA STATE CAREER DEVELOPMENT EVENTS

Students from the Dripping Springs High School ag program competed in the FFA State Career Development Events April 25 and 27, 2018.

At Saturday's FFA Career Development Event held at Texas A&M University, the DSHS Livestock Evaluation team placed seventh out of 97 teams. Individually, Kyle Herron placed seventh as well. The team is composed of Herron, Caitlyn Alderson, Emma Minigh, Ashley Smith, and Cecelia Vantrease.

Other events were held April 25 at Tarleton State University. In the Dairy Cattle Career Development Event, the Dripping Springs FFA team placed 23rd. Members were: Faith Baxter, Skylar Duleba and Caroline Olson. The Dripping Springs FFA Homesite Evaluation team placed 31st; competing team members were Iris Baker, Cayla Cohen, Chase Collier, and Michael White.