DSHS ONE-ACT PLAY ADVANCES TO BI-DISTRICT

On March 15, the Dripping Springs High School production of Federico Garcia Lorca's "Blood Wedding" was rated as the First-Place Advancing Play (among eight competing schools) at the UIL District 25 5A Contest. Griffin McKitrick and Kenzie Olsen were honored as the Best Actor and Best Actress, and Julia Harris was selected as All-Star Technical Crew. The next step will be the Bi-District contest on March 28 at the Austin ISD Performing Arts Center.
