TWO COMMUNITY COFFEES SET FOR SCHOOL YEAR

DRIPPING SPRINGS, Texas—Once again in 2017-18, the Dripping Springs Independent School District (DSISD) will hold “district-wide community coffees to welcome parents and community members to campuses and offer an opportunity to visit with district leaders. One event will be held each semester this school year.

The fall coffee will be held at Sycamore Springs Middle School on Friday, Oct. 27, from 7:45-9:00 a.m. The spring gathering is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 23, 2018, at Dripping Springs Elementary.

This will be the ninth year that the district has hosted community coffees. Administrators from all campuses and the Central Office will be available to share information, address questions, and gather feedback.
