

News from Dripping Springs ISD

www.dsisdtx.us

DATE: April 18, 2018

HOSA STUDENTS RECOGNIZED A STATE EVENT

Four Dripping Springs High School students qualified for and competed at the state HOSA (Future Health Professionals) state competition April 14 and three received honors.

Emily Argento Bird qualified to compete at the International level in the Outstanding HOSA Chapter Event; she also received a $1500 scholarship. Elaina Erickson and Zach Young both were recognized with the Barbara James Service Award for their volunteer hours. Also competing at the state event was Jason Schultz in Pathophysiology.