DSMS IS FINALIST FOR SCHOOL OF THE YEAR AWARD

DRIPPING SPRINGS, Texas—Dripping Springs Middle School is one of six finalists nationally for the 2014 "School of the Year" Award presented by the National Association of Middle School Principals (NAMSP). The award is based on criteria such as academic achievement, extracurricular opportunities, attendance/discipline, and student performance on assessments. The other finalists are Boynton Middle School (New Ipswich, N.H.), East Aurora Middle School (East Aurora, N.Y.), Northeastern Middle School (Wolf, Pa.), Pioneer Trail Middle School (Olathe, Kan.) and Hesston Middle School (Hesston, Kan.).

The winning school will be announced at the organization's summer conference at the end of June. Last year DSMS was recognized as the state winner and national runner-up for the NAMSP Safe Schools Award.
