DSHS DRUMLINE WINS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

DRIPPING SPRINGS, Texas—On Saturday, the Dripping Springs High School Drumline won the Gold Medal at the Texas Color Guard Circuit Percussion State Championships held at Texas A&M University. The Tiger drumline's show, "Put Your Hands Together," took top honors among 10 groups in the Scholastic A Class. The drumline is under the guidance of Assistant Band Director Jason Littleton.

Dripping Springs Middle School also entered an eighth-grade group at this weekend's event.

On Monday, April 14, at 8:30 a.m., the high school will be holding a celebration in the Competition Gym for the state-champion drumline, which will also perform their award-winning piece. Members of the community may attend, but should get a visitor's badge at the front office.
