EARLY VOTING STARTS APRIL 28

DRIPPING SPRINGS, Texas—Early voting for the May 10, 2014 election runs from Monday, April 28, to Tuesday, May 6. Dripping Springs ISD has a $92,410,000 bond referendum on the ballot, as well as two seats on the Board of Trustees.

The bond package includes funding for a new elementary school and a new middle school on Sawyer Ranch Road, a new multi-purpose stadium at the existing competition field behind Dripping Springs High School, HVAC system and roof replacements at some schools, a baseball/softball complex at Dripping Springs High School, a public access road connecting Dripping Springs High School to Highway 290, district-wide technology renovations and other infrastructure improvements, and expansion of high school field house/locker room facilities.

Four candidates are running for the two Board positions (ballot order): Wayne Egeler, Barbara Stroud, Ron Jones and Alan Atwood. Currently, the positions are held by Ms. Stroud and Mr. Atwood, who each have served two three-year terms.

For more information on the bond, see www.DSISDbond.net; for biographies of all four candidates, see: <http://www.dsisd.txed.net/index.aspx?NID=330>.
