DSHS STUDENTS EXCEL IN VETERANS DAY ESSAY CONTEST

DRIPPING SPRINGS, Texas—Dripping Springs High School students placed second and third in the annual Veterans Day Essay Contest sponsored by the Travis County Veterans Day Parade Committee. Freshman Andja Bjeletich was the high school contest runner-up, while freshman Jordan Nolen finished third.

On Nov. 11, the students, their parents and teachers have been invited to attend the Austin Veterans Day parade followed by a ceremony that will be held outside the Texas State Capitol. The students will receive cash awards of $200 and $100, respectively.

DSHS students have done exceptionally well in the annual Veterans Days Essay Contest, having taken top honors in both 2010 and 2011. Last year Dripping Springs students also placed second and third.
