

DATE: June 05, 2018

SENIORS SIGN LETTERS OF INTENT

Several more Tiger student-athletes signed national letters of intent and announced their commitments to continue their playing careers at the collegiate level. That brings the total number of Dripping Springs High School seniors who have announced their official commitments to 38 for the year, which is the most ever for a senior class at DSHS. The most recent group includes:

Izzie Guerrero, track, University of Nebraska
Marcus Egger, swimming, South Dakota State University
Olivia Perry, volleyball, Temple Junior College
Noah Pyles, baseball, Tyler Junior College
Katie Tuohy, swimming, Colby College (Waterville, Maine)
Keely Vardemann, swimming, Northern Arizona University
Justin Wright, track, University of Texas-San Antonio

Previously announcing their commitments were: Emily Barefield (softball), Christopher Cameron (golf), Shelby Clayton (volleyball), Abby Cloud (golf), Beau Collins (football), Justin Dunlap (baseball), Riley Dunn (softball), Alex El Sariakoussy (football), Miles Farris (football), Grant Gaspard (baseball), Jayci Goldsmith (tennis), Nick Hammond (wrestling), John Hoyle (Baseball), Connor Jamail (lacrosse), Bryce Kalsu (track), Paige Leschber (softball), Danielle Northrup (softball), Grant O'Neil (cross country), Will Overstreet (baseball), Bryce Potter (volleyball), Ava Pritchard (volleyball), Lightsey Puryear (track), Curt Raymond (football), Dylan Smith (football), Darby Stowers (volleyball), Justin Taylor (baseball), Graceyn Tippens (volleyball), Jaxson Thornton (soccer), Cheyenne Tuley-Dittmer (cheer), Paige Whipple (golf), and A.G. Yowell (baseball).

