

DATE: October 23, 2017

DSHS PAIR HONORED WITH WENDY'S HEISMAN AWARD

Dripping Springs High Schools seniors Annie Hudson and Dane Schmok were recognized as school winners of the 2017 Wendy's High School Heisman. The award honors seniors who share values of giving back to their communities, treating people with respect, continuing education and excelling on the athletic field.

Annie is a member of the Lady Tiger basketball and softball teams, and has received academic all-district honors in both sports. She is a member of the the National Honor Society and FCA. Dane is a varsity football and basketball player who was selected by Lake Hills Church for the SPUR Leadership program; he is actively involved in the church's youth group.

Since 1994, Wendy's and the Heisman Trophy Trust have been running the same play to perfection: honoring more than 600,000 of the nation's most esteemed students. School winners received a certificate and a Wendy's High School Heisman Patch, and advanced to the state-level program.

Eligibility begins with maintaining a GPA of 3.0 (B average) or better. Applicants also need to be proven leaders and role models within their school and community. And applicants must perform in at least one of the 47 school sponsored sports recognized by the International Olympic Committee in the Summer and Winter Olympic Games or the National Federation of State High School Associations.