WRESTLING THIRD AT REGIONALS; TWO REGIONAL CHAMPS AND EIGHT STATE QUALIFIERS

At the UIL Region 4-5A Wrestling Championships Feb. 15-16, Dripping Springs High School placed third as a team (boys) and had two regional champions. The Tigers amassed 143 points as a team, finishing behind Leander Glenn High School (162.5) and Cedar Park High School (159.5). Chase Warden and Clayton Jetton were regional champions and a total of eight wrestlers (seven boys and one girl) qualified for the state tournament.

Warden was the champion in the 145-pound weight class. In the title match he recorded a major decision over Julian Delgado of Corpus Christi King High School by a score of 10-0. Warden is undefeated this season with a 31-0 record. Also bringing home a regional championship for DSHS was Clayton Jetton at 195 pounds thanks to his 6-0 decision over Kallon Guyton on Leander Glenn High School. Jetton's season record is 44-4.

Other top-six finishers and state qualifiers for the Tigers were: Brodie Dyer (third at 120 lbs.), Daniel Mayes (sixth at 132 lbs.), Tony Quevedo (fourth at 152 lbs.), Luke Norton (fourth at 160 lbs.), and Jefferson Guerrero (fourth at 170 lbs.). In addition, the first-ever female wrestler for DSHS, Cat Miller, was fourth in the 119-pound class and will move on to the state tournament.
