

The Hays County Master Gardeners are a service organization that has some projects in our area. We are promoters and educators of "best gardening practices", protectors of natural environments, and creators of not only beautiful spaces, but edible spaces. Currently, we have projects going and or in the planning stages. We would love to provide not only community service hours, but also an opportunity to learn and or plan projects for our area.

If you are interested please contact Sally Witkowski

basswitkowski@gmail.com