MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS SERVING COMMUNITIES TOGETHER

National Charity League, Inc. - New Chapter in SW Austin/Dripping Springs for Girls in Grades 7 -9

One of the country's oldest and most respected service organizations for young women is forming a new Chapter in Southwest Austin/Dripping Springs to provide volunteer leadership opportunities for girls ages 12 – 18 and their mothers. The newest National Charity League Chapter is being formed to serve nonprofit organizations located in southwestern Travis County and parts of Hays County.

For this new Chapter, members shall reside in or attend school in the Southwest Austin area, which includes neighborhoods such as Circle C Ranch, Bear Creek, Southside Barton Creek, as well as Sunset Valley and Dripping Springs.

For a Chapter to form, it will recruit girls primarily in 7th – 9th grades. When forming a new Chapter, the idea is to give the girls room to grow. The culture of NCL is that girls and mothers will spend time together throughout the girls' middle and high school years. There is Leadership opportunities for the Mother's as well. The new Chapter is currently forming the Chapter Exec Board with the President, VP Membership, Treasurer, VP Philanthropy and Secretary.
